OBJECT:

Interview With an Object

Directions: Imagine that an everyday object can talk. Your job is to interview the object and uncover its thoughts, feelings, and story. To start, pick one object from your surroundings. It could be anything—a pencil, backpack, clock, sneaker, or even a tree outside. Write the name of your object below and then answer the following questions as if you were that object.

OBJECT:

WHAT IS YOUR BIGGEST FEAR?

WHAT IS A TYPICAL DAY LIKE FOR YOU?

WHAT MAKES YOU HAPPY?

WHAT DO YOU WISH PEOPLE UNDERSTOOD ABOUT YOU?
